GENTING MALAYSIA ACQUIRES PRIME REAL ESTATE PROPERTIES IN MIAMI, USA

KUALA LUMPUR, 27 MAY 2011: Genting Malaysia Berhad (“Genting Malaysia”) is pleased to announce that its subsidiary Bayfront 2011 Property, LLC has purchased land of approximately 13.9 acres in Miami for a total consideration of US$236 million, with plans to build a mixed-use development. The land includes the building currently housing The Miami Herald Media Company (“Miami Herald”) and an adjacent parking lot.

The seller, The McClatchy Company, is the third-largest newspaper publisher in the USA and is listed on the New York Stock Exchange. It is also the parent company of Miami Herald.

The acquisition involves large prime freehold waterfront properties facing the scenic Biscayne Bay. Strategically located in downtown Miami, the properties are close to commercial, residential and shopping areas and are bordered by an extensive road network linking to Miami International Airport and South Beach, one of the world’s top beach destinations.

The land is located directly across the street from the Adrienne Arsht Center for the Performing Arts of Miami-Dade County, which is among America’s largest performing arts centers. Miami’s new Museum Park development, the future home of Miami Art Museum and Miami Science Museum, is located immediately to the south.

Genting Malaysia is working towards developing a comprehensive master plan for Resorts World Miami, as the development will be called, which will include hotel, convention, entertainment, restaurant, retail, residential and commercial facilities. The project aims to capitalise on Miami’s standing as one of the world’s leading tourism hubs.

“Resorts World Miami will be a landmark mixed-use development for Miami, Florida and the United States,” said Tan Sri Lim Kok Thay, Chairman and Chief Executive of Genting Malaysia. “Downtown Miami has experienced dramatic residential and commercial growth in recent years, and we believe the addition of a large-scale mixed-use and entertainment complex will be a welcomed addition, further elevating the area’s status as a global destination.”

The acquisition is an integral step for Genting Malaysia as it seeks to expand internationally in the leisure, hospitality and entertainment industry. The envisioned Resorts World Miami represents Genting Malaysia’s second venture in the USA, after Resorts World New York at the historic Aqueduct Racetrack in the City of New York.
